IT'S OUR BIRTHDAY!

Join us as we celebrate our first birthday with patriots from across Massachusetts and surrounding states. We'll be celebrating the power of Liberty and commitment to the Constitution, in a really big way. Following a brief introduction, John McManus, author and President of the John Birch Society, will deliver what will surely be an inspiring and motivational speech. Then hoping to build on the great success of Oath Keepers at the historic Lexington Battle Green, we'll have Celia Hyde administer the Oath to all in attendance. MassLPA members are currently sending invitations out to police departments statewide, so we hope to be celebrating our commitment to the Constitution in good company. Active & retired military are invited to join us as well. Please visit the website, download the flyer and distribute it far and wide. Bob Feuer, former challenger to Congressman John Olver, will be discussing local security and his efforts educating the public on constitutional money. Wrapping up our agenda will be the Massachusetts 912 Project. Bill Gunn and Iraq veteran Dan Rose will share with the crowd the 9 principles and 12 values that guides their group. We'll finish the day-long event with some great live music.
